

CHERRY PECTORAL,

For the rapid Cure of COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING-COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, AND CONSUMPTION.

Many years of trial, instead of impairing the public confidence in this medicine, has won for it an appreciation and popularity by far exceeding the most sanguine expectations of its friends. Nothing but its intrinsic virtues and the innumerable benefit conferred on thousands of sufferers, could vindicate and maintain the reputation it enjoys. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community, have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted which can never be forgotten, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

While it is a fraud on the public to pretend that any one medicine will infallibly cure—still there is abundant proof that the Cherry Pectoral does not only as a general thing, but almost invariably cure the maladies for which it is employed.

As time makes these facts wider and better known, this medicine has gradually become the best reliance of the afflicted, from the low cabin of the American Pioneer, to the palaces of European Kings. Throughout this entire country, in every state, city, and indeed almost every hamlet it enters, Cherry Pectoral is known as the best remedy extant for the cure of the throat and lungs, and in many foreign countries, it is coming to be extensively used by their most learned Physicians. In Great Britain, France and Germany, where the medical sciences have reached their highest perfection Cherry Pectoral is introduced, and in constant use in the Armies, Hospitals, Alms-Houses, Public Institutions, and in domestic practice, as the surest remedy their attending Physicians can employ for the more dangerous affections of the lungs. Also in milder cases, and for children it is safe, pleasant and effectual to cure. In fact, some of the most striking testimonials we receive have been from parents who have found it efficacious in cases particularly incidental to childhood.

The Cherry Pectoral is manufactured by a practical Chemist, and every ounce of it under his own eye, with invincible accuracy and care. It is sealed and protected by law from enterfeirs, consequently can be relied on as genuine without adulteration.

We have endeavored here to furnish the community with a medicine of such intrinsic superiority and worth as would command itself to their confidence—a remedy at once safe, speedy and efficient, which this has by repeated and consecutive trials proved itself to be; and trust by great care in preparing it with chemical accuracy, of uniform strength, to allied Physicians a new agent on which they can rely for the best results, and the afflicted with a remedy that will do for them all that medicine can do.

FIELD'S SCRAP BOOK—New Edition.

Literary and Miscellaneous Scrap Book.

CONSISTING of Tales and Anecdotes—Biographical, Historical, Patriotic, Moral, Religious, and sentimental Pieces, in Prose and Poetry. Compiled by William Field. Second edition, revised and improved.

The Foot, Path and Highway; OR,

WANDERINGS of an American in Great Britain.

W. in 1851 and '52. By Benjamin Morgan. This volume embodies the observations of the author, made

during eight months' wanderings, as a correspondent

for American journals; and as he traveled much on foot, differs essentially from those on the same country, by other writers.

New Themes for the Protestant Clergy;

CREEDS without Charioty, Theology without Humanity, and Protestantism without Christianity;

with Notes by the Editor on the Literature of Charity,

Population, Pauperism, Political Economy, and Protestantism. The great question which the book discusses is, whether the Church of this age is what the primitive Church was, and whether Christians—both bishops and people—are doing their duty. Our author believes not, and, to our mind, he has made out a strong case. He thinks there is abundant room for reform at the present time, and that it is needed almost as much as in the days of Luther.
